

Letters to Legislators (LTL) Power of 10 Challenge

LTLX10

TPP encourages Indigenous Peoples' Day (IPD) supporters of all ages across the USA to become an IPD Domino this summer by accepting the LTL Power of 10 Challenge = LTLX10. This citizen action challenge is met when you send and/or arrange 10 IPD letters to 10 legislators + recruit 10 IPD Dominos (family, friend, colleague) to do likewise, creating the ultimate domino effect. Instead of a chain letter, it is a "change letter" campaign. Bonus civic pride points are available for connecting with folks across the country as IPD is a local, state and national opportunity for positive social change.

LTLX10 >> An easy way to make a difference with TPP support, including:

LTLX10 >> Strengthen your family, your community and your country

- Use LTLX10 to affect a fun and meaningful family connection – immediate and extended family
  - For most families IPD is not a partisan issue which offers an unusual opportunity when everyone is in agreement on a subject of historic and cultural significance, strengthening the fabric of family relationships
- Use LTLX10 to update and strengthen your relationship with friends and colleagues, locally and nationally, as you recruit them to become an IPD Domino
- Embrace the power of civic pride and the good feeling of being purposeful as you play a role in our democratic process and work to affect positive change for the future of our country
  - Enjoy an annual burst of pride on the 2nd Monday in October = Indigenous Peoples' Day
- Use the Indigenous Peoples' Day Initiative as a conduit to learn more about the history and culture of America's Indigenous Communities and their plans for the future
